ORDER:

Sri D. Prasad Kumar, SI of Police, West Godavari District, was handed up on with the Major Charge under Rule-20 of A.P.C.S. [CC&A] Rules, 1991, vide Memorandum of Charge C.No.50/P1/2015, Dated:10-11-2016.

2. The Deputy Inspector General of Police, Eluru Range, Eluru after duly following the procedure prescribed in the A.P.C.S. (CC&A) Rules, 1991, has awarded the punishment of "PPI for a period of two years with effect on future increments and pension".

3. The Charged Officer has submitted a Appeal Petition before the Government, requesting to set -aside the punishment of "PPI for a period of two years with effect on future increments and pension".

4. In the reference 1st read above, the Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh has stated that the Deputy Inspector General of Police, Eluru Range, Eluru, in his letter dated: 29.10.2018, has furnished the remarks on the Appeal petition of Sri D. Prasad Kumar, SI of Police, D.T.C, Pedavegi, West Godavari District, against the punishment of "PPI for a period of two years with effect on future increments and pension", awarded by the Dy. Inspector General of Police, Eluru Range Eluru.

5. In the reference 3rd read above, the DGP has given the Provisional Decision on the Appeal Petition is as follows:

> "I have gone through the entire records and found that charges of taking money are held not proved by Inquiry Authority and same was upheld by Deputy Inspector General of Police, Eluru Range while deciding the punishment, so it is clear that no punishment is needed for that.
>
> Another count which was held proved by Inquiry Authority is that there was delay in registering the FIR by charged Officer and accordingly DIG of Police, Eluru Range gave the punishment. After going through the OE file, it is found in the statement of complainant that he did not prefer any complaint to police station or SHO, therefore delaying in registering the FIR doesn't arise. I don't agree with the punishment given by the DIG, Eluru Range. Actually, it is unfair to give punishment for the offence he has not committed".

6. Government, after careful examination of the matter with reference to the records made available, hereby set aside the punishment of "PPI for a period of two years with effect on future increments and pension" against Sri D. Prasad Kumar, SI of Police, formerly Eluru III Town PS and now working in District Training Centre, West Godavari District.

7. The Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh is requested to take necessary further action in the matter accordingly. The records received through the reference cited are returned herewith and receipt of the same should be acknowledged.
